Terms & Conditions:

1. The empanelment shall remain valid for the financial year 2026-27 from the date of issuance of this Order, unless terminated earlier at the discretion of RISL without assigning any reason.
2. Empanelment shall not confer any right to automatic engagement, retainer, or assured allocation of cases. Assignment of cases shall be made by the Competent Authority based on requirement, suitability, and administrative convenience.
3. Professional fees shall be payable on a case-to-case basis as per prevailing norms/orders of the Government of Rajasthan / RISL, as amended from time to time.
4. The empanelled advocates shall maintain strict confidentiality of all records and documents entrusted to them and shall avoid any conflict of interest in matters concerning RISL.
5. The advocate empanelled for the higher category shall also be eligible for the lower category.
6. RISL reserves the right to engage any advocate outside the empanelled panel in exceptional or urgent circumstances in the interest of the Company. The Managing Director may relax the experience requirement among the empanelled advocates for dealing a category of case.

All concerned are directed to take note of the above and ensure compliance.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
