11) Evaluation & Tabulation of Technical Bid

a) Determination of Responsiveness

- a. The bid evaluation committee shall determine the responsiveness of a Bid on the basis of bidding document and the provisions of criteria as mentioned in the bidding document.
- b. A responsive Bid is one that meets the requirements of the bidding document without any material deviation, reservation, or omission where: -
 - i. "deviation" is a departure from the requirements specified in the bidding document;
 - ii. "reservation" is the setting of limiting conditions or withholding from complete acceptance of the requirements specified in the bidding document; and
 - iii. "Omission" is the failure to submit part or all of the information or documentation required in the bidding document.
- c. A material deviation, reservation, or omission is one that,
 - i. if accepted, shall:-
 1. affect in any substantial way the scope, quality, or performance of the subject matter of procurement specified in the bidding documents; or
 2. limits in any substantial way, inconsistent with the bidding documents, the procuring entity's rights or the bidder's obligations under the proposed contract; or
 - ii. if rectified, shall unfairly affect the competitive position of other bidders presenting responsive Bid, if applicable.
- d. The bid evaluation committee shall examine the technical aspects of the Bid in particular, to confirm that all requirements of bidding document have been met without any material deviation, reservation or omission.

- e. The procuring entity shall regard a Bid as responsive if it conforms to all requirements set out in the bidding document, or it contains minor deviations that do not materially alter or depart from the characteristics, terms, conditions and other requirements set out in the bidding document, or if it contains errors or oversights that can be corrected without touching on the substance of the Bid.

b) Non-material Non-conformities in Bid

- a. The bid evaluation committee may waive any non-conformities in the Bid that do not constitute a material deviation, reservation or omission, the Bid shall be deemed to be substantially responsive.
- b. The bid evaluation committee may request the bidder to submit the necessary information or document like audited statement of accounts/ CA Certificate, Registration Certificate, GST certificate, ISO/ CMMi Certificates, etc. within a reasonable period of time. Failure of the Bidder to comply with the request may result in the rejection of its Bid.
- c. The bid evaluation committee may rectify non-material nonconformities or omissions on the basis of the information or documentation received from the bidder under (b) above.

c) Technical Evaluation Criteria: Bid shall be evaluated based on the compliance of the documents submitted in the technical bid.

d) Tabulation of Technical Bid

- a. If Technical Bid has been invited, they shall be tabulated by the bid evaluation committee to evaluate the qualification of the Bidder against the criteria for qualification set out in the bidding document.
- b. The members of bid evaluation committee shall give their recommendations regarding meeting of bidder in required qualification in evaluation of Technical Bid and sign it.
- e) The bidder/authorised partner, if qualified in the technical evaluation shall be informed in writing about the date, time and place of opening of the financial Bid.

13) Correction of Arithmetic Errors in Financial Bid: The bid evaluation committee shall correct arithmetical errors in substantially responsive Bid, on the following basis, namely: -

- a) if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected, unless in the opinion of the bid evaluation committee there is an obvious misplacement of the decimal point in the unit price, in which case the total price as quoted shall govern and the unit price shall be corrected;
- b) if there is an error in a total corresponding to the addition or subtraction of subtotals, the subtotals shall prevail and the total shall be corrected; and
- c) if there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail, unless the amount expressed in words is related to an arithmetic error, in which case the amount in figures shall prevail subject to clause (a) and (b) above.

14) Price/ purchase preference

Price and/ or purchase preference (including bidding document fees, EMD and Performance Security) notified by the State Government (GoR), Price preference policy for MSME enterprise (as per new circular on Nov. 19, 2015) & any other notification issued by GoR for price preference and as mentioned in the bidding document shall be considered in the evaluation of Bids and award of Rate contract.

15) Negotiations

- a) Negotiations may, however, be undertaken when the rates are considered to be much higher than the prevailing market rates.
- b) The bid evaluation committee shall have full powers to undertake negotiations. Detailed reasons and results of negotiations shall be recorded in the proceedings.
- c) The Bidder shall be informed in writing either through messenger or by registered letter and e-mail (if available). A minimum time of seven days shall be given for calling negotiations. In case of urgency the bid evaluation committee, after recording reasons, may reduce the time, provided the Bidder has received the intimation and consented to regarding holding of negotiations.
- d) Negotiations shall not make the original offer made by the bidder inoperative. The bid evaluation committee shall have option to consider the original offer in case the bidder decides to increase rates originally quoted or imposes any new terms or conditions.
- e) In case of non-satisfactory achievement of rates from bidder/authorised partner, the bid evaluation committee may choose to make a written counter offer to the bidder and if this is not accepted by him, the committee may decide to reject and re-invite Bid.
- f) In case the rates even after the negotiations are considered very high, fresh Bid shall be invited.

16) Exclusion of Bid/ Disqualification

- a) A procuring entity shall exclude/ disqualify a Bid, if: -

- a. the information submitted, concerning the qualifications of the bidder/authorised partner, was false or constituted a misrepresentation; or
 - b. the information submitted, concerning the qualifications of the bidder/authorised partner, was materially inaccurate or incomplete; and
 - c. the bidder is not qualified as per pre-qualification/ eligibility criteria mentioned in the bidding document;
 - d. the Bid materially departs from the requirements specified in the bidding document or it contains false information;
 - e. the bidder/authorised partner, submitting the Bid, his agent or any one acting on his behalf, gave or agreed to give, to any officer or employee of the procuring entity or other governmental authority a gratification in any form, or any other thing of value, so as to unduly influence the procurement process;

In case the supplier fails to rectify the defect(s)/ service disruption within 2 calendar days, twice in a year, it may be considered as breach of contract. Further, non-availability of all the resources on any working day may be considered as breach of contract.

Note: - The dependencies on the performance of services beyond the control of either party and where default is due to reasons beyond the control of the selected bidder, the selected bidder would not be penalized.

3) Change Requests/ Management

- a) An institutional mechanism will be set up for taking decisions regarding requests for changes. The Purchase Committee will set up a Change Control Committee with members from the procurement agency and the selected bidder/authorised partner. If it is unable to reach an agreement, the decision of the Purchase Committee will be final.
- b) RISL may at any time, by a written order given to the bidder/authorised partner, make changes within the general scope of the Agreement in any one or more of the following: -
- o Designs, specifications, requirements which software or service to be provided under the Agreement are to be specifically developed and rendered for RISL.
 - o The method of deployment, shipping or packing.
 - o Schedule for Installation Acceptance.
 - o The place of delivery and/or the services to be provided by the bidder/authorised partner.
- c) The change request/ management procedure will follow the following steps: -
- o Identification and documentation of the need for the change - The information related to initiator, initiation date and details of change required and priority of the change will be documented by RISL.
 - o Analysis and evaluation of the Change Request - Impact of the change in terms of the estimated effort, changed schedule, cost and the items impacted will be analysed and documented by the bidder/authorised partner.
 - o Approval or disapproval of the change request – RISL will approve or disapprove the change requested including the additional payments for software development, quoted man-month rate shall be used for cost estimation, efforts of all technical resources- project manager, analyst, software developer, testing engineer, database architecture etc. shall be taken into account for total man-month estimation to carry out the s/w development resulting from the change request. For all technical resources irrespective of their experience and specialisation, the quoted man-month rate shall be used. Efforts of support staff shall not be taken into consideration for this purpose.

- o Implementation of the change – The change will be implemented in accordance to the agreed cost, effort, and schedule by the selected bidder.
 - o Verification of the change - The change will be verified by RISL on implementation of the change request.
- d) All changes outside the scope of supplies agreed to herein which may have likely financial implications in terms of the overall cost/ time of the project shall be undertaken by bidder only after securing the express consent of RISL. In the event that the consent of RISL is not received then the change will not be carried out.
- e) While approving any change request, if required, RISL may ask Bidder to deploy the required resources on-site.
- f) If any such change outside the scope of supplies agreed to herein causes an increase or decrease in cost of, or the time required for, firm’s performance of any provisions under the Agreement, equitable adjustments shall be made in the Agreement Price or Delivery Schedule, or both, and the Agreement shall accordingly be amended. Any claims by firm for adjustment under this must be asserted within 30 (thirty) days from the date of SI receiving the RISL change order which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
